

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A COMMUNITY CHORAL WORKSHOP

SINGING IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN STYLE

PLUS A LITTLE EXTRA FROM MADAGASCAR

with Julian
Raphael

DIRECTOR OF THE
WELLINGTON COMMUNITY CHOIR

Julian has recently returned from a three week study and concert tour of South Africa with Village Harmony and Matlakala Bopape, musical director of the Polokwane Choral Society where he was taught a variety of contemporary folk and praise songs that are well-known throughout South Africa. The music is wonderfully infectious and captivating and suitable for all levels of experience. Songs, in 4-part harmony are taught by ear and accompanied with dancing.
