

in this issue ...

3	Save Our Souls: Music education is back on the margins – Dr Trevor Thwaites
6	From the president – Stephanie Lee
7	Marking Matariki in Early Childhood – Helen Willberg
8	Young children choosing an instrument to learn – Helen Willberg
9	Singing – the soon to be forgotten art in our early childhood centres – Trish Moor
11	Kids Concerts – Southland – Jay Sagmyr
12	Ukeleles in Schools – Maria Winder
14	Is Yours a Singing School? – Celia Stewart
15	Bandwagon Concerts – the power of participation – Katherine & Peter Watts
16	Profile – Jan Bolton talks to Tracy Rohan
18	Music Techonolgy: Digital Age Teaching & Learning – Web 2.0 – Alex Wallace
20	MENZA Mentoring
21	Managing the Paperwar
23	Part One: So You Want to Start a Band?
25	Practical uses for the iPhone in Music Teaching – Judith Bell and Tim Bell
26	Musical Downloads

Sound Arts is published by
MENZA: Music Education
It is the professional magazine
MENZA has as its vision
Making Education bring

MENZA maintains a
The postal address is:

MENZA Board Members

Stephanie Lee
Grace Davey
Errol Moore
Jennifer Moss
Julian Raphael
Sally Bodkin-Allen
Celia Stewart
Maria Winder

Editorial Coordination

Overall content
ECE
Primary
Secondary